REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Sept. 10.-New York now stands an excellent chance of winning the booby prize. The last game with the Cardinals at the Pelo grounds to-day began under gathering clouds, which threatened to deluge a handful of spectators every minute. The rain held off long enough, however, for St. Louis to tie the score with a run in the ninth inning, after which the game was called on account of

Mr. Dwyer, who presided as umpire, came in for a good deal of abuse after the eighth inning had been played. The Glants in-sisted that it was too dark to play ball, but Donovan declared that his team could see to play, and suggested that the New Yorkto pay, and suggested that the New 10'reers had better send for a supply of spectacles. Dwyer declared, and justly, that it was only fair to the visitors that the game should be played out and ordered the game to proceed, whereupon a New Yorker in the bleachers declared that Dwyer's intelligence was of a very rare order—so rare, in fact, that a little more fire wouldn't hurt.

Score Tied in Ninth.

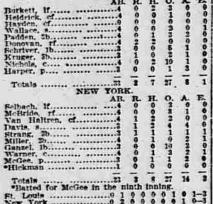

The score at this stage of the game stood 8 to 2 in favor of New York. The Cardinals went to the bat and Donovan went out on a foul. Schriver died at the outset By way of evening up matters, Magee, pitching against his erstwhile teammates, hit Kruger and the latter went to first. He stole second and went to third on a wild throw by Warner. Van Haltren duplicated Warner's act and Kruger scored. This evened the score. When the Giants went to bat, it was a trifle dark, but not so much so that they were not retired in one, two, three order. Heidrick was put out of the game in the eighth inning for "back talk" and Heydon took his place.

New York scored twice in the second on Davis's single to right, a pass to Strang, and an linfield hit by Miller, who beat out the ball to first. Davis came home on Gangel's force and Strang scored on a safe tap in front of the plate by Magee.

In the eighth Van Haltren singled to right. Burkett captured Davis's fly, but Strang singled. Miller's grounder forced Strang at second. Miller's grounder forced Strang at second. Miller's grounder forced Strang at second Miller's grounder forced Strang at second Miller's grounder forced Strang at second. Donovan singling over second. Magee hit Schriver in the head with the ball. The Cardinals scored on a hot one by Nichols, which got away from Strang.

It was rumored to-day that Patsy Dono-van will take a delegation of minor league stars home to be tried out in St. Louis. ST. LOUIS.

Patsy Donovan and his crew got away from New York last night with two defeats, a win and a tie as a record with the misuamed Giants. In none of the Eastern series have the Cardinais been able to annex a majority of games, and it not likely that they will break their hoodowith the Quakers to contend with. The St. Louisans and the men from William Penn's town have not had an argument for more than two months, the last series between the two teams having been pulled off at League Park the first week in July. The Philadelphians are a stronger aggregation at League Park the first week in July. The Philadelphians are a stronger aggregation than the team which played here in July, even with Harry Wolverton absent from third base. Jennings, Filck & Co. are hard customers, and Manager Shettsline carries a bunch of effective twirlers on his pay roll. Manager Donovan is reported to have "copped out" some minor league talent in New York and a new name or two may appear in the box scores in a day or two. Masee was left behind in New York. Jack Powell will likely serve up the twisters today, with little Nichols to take them into receivership. Masee was left behind in New York. Jack Berotal Varience has been described as a creeping disease. It silently steals upon its victim like a thief at night, and before he is really aware of its presence great and damaging inroads are made upon his constitution. The veins surrounding the spermatic cord become enlarged and engorged with impure blood and diseased tissue. At times this condition may be accompant d with a dull, heavy, dragging pain in the small of the back, extending down into the parts, low spirits, weakness of the body and brain, nervous debility, partial or complete loss of sexual power, and not infrequently decline of the general health. All these disagreeable symptoms soon disappeur completely and forever under my Varicoccie cure, which is safe, painless and bloodless and therefore free from surgery in any form. Every clot of stagmant blood and every fiber of diseased tissue are driven from the affected parts, normal circulation is re-established throughout the pelvic region, the weakened organs become strong again, and surely manbood is restored.

I also cure to stay cured STRICTURE, SPECIFIC BLOOD POISON, NERVO-SEXU-AL DEBILITY and all reflex complications and associate diseases and weaknesses of men. To these maladies alone I have earnestly devoted twenty-three of the best years of my life. I make no charge for private counsel and give to each patient a legal contract in writing, backed by abundant cacital, to hold for my promise. It is not worth your while to investigate a cure that has made life anew to multitudes of men?

If you cannot call, write your trouble fully. I have the most perfect stem of treatment known to medical science.

announced that McGann is no longer a Cardinal, rumors have been flying thick and fast that "Old Ky." is about to complete a deal with "Mugsy" McGraw. It is said that McGann has had dickerings with McGraw, which may result in the former finishing out the season in Baltimore.

"You can say for me," said McGann last night, "that the most of these rumors are bits of heated atmosphere. I have received no official announcement that I have been bounced. In fact, I don't need any, as far as I am concerned, as I quit the team of my own accord, and don't see how I can be fired after I have quit. Just what my plans are I don't care to say just now. It is natural to suppose, though, that I have considered offers, as I am still in the business and open for all comers. If I am offered the money I will leave St. Louis, and whichever man profiers me the best job will be likely to get me. My presence in St. Louis does not necessarily mean that I am waiting for something to 'turn up,' as this is my home as much as any place."

"Will I go to McGraw if he comes up with the requisite cash?

"Well, that is generally the bone of contention with all players, but if I can get a good berth I am not above accepting it, no matter whether with McGraw or any one else. If, as has been rumored, I have had any correspondence with McGraw, nothing has come of it thus far and that is all there is to say. I may have had offers and I may not. At any rate I think I will don the spangles before long, but just where is not yet settled, though it may be in a few days."

McGraw and McGann are known to be on very good terms. Just at this time Mike Donlin is keeping tab on the initial corner for the Orioles, but he could be used to as good, if not better, sdwantage in the outer garden. McGann played with Baltimore two years ago and came to St. Louis at the same time that the Robisons secured McGraw and Robinson.

ENTURIES ago, upon the lower slopes of Vesuvius, men, women and children were rejoicing to the music of guitar and mandolin, grandly oblivious of the fiery ordeal to which they were soon subjected. Intoxicated with joy, they danced on, laughing as they danced, and presently there was a rumbling above them, followed like lightning by an upheaval of fire, and the citles wherein they reveled lay deep buried under a sea of molten lava.
